*Presenter's Bio:

Rae-Mairi Fandrakis, with 10 years of studying in herbology, has more recently focused her studies toward her Clinical Herbalist Naturopathy (CHT) doctorate. Her ultimate goal is to become a doctor specializing in Herbalist practices. Her main interests in the field of Herbal studies lie primarily in the area of diseases that patients experience ranging from birth to elderly life stages. Rae-Mairi would like to open her own Herbal Healing clinic and welcome both deaf and hearing patients for consultation. Her current goal is to start educating Deaf community members about healing practices for their own ailments. This busy wife and mother of 3 boys, loves art and animals, enjoys the outdoors with gardening, camping, and hiking. Rae-Mairi is excited about finally sharing her knowledge and experience about herbs to Deaf community members.
