Pacific DAWN is a B.C. and Yukon Territory association of women who identify themselves as having a disability and who's mission among other things is to

- Provide support, information and resources to women with disabilities
- Establish and maintain a network of communications between and among disabled and non-disabled women
- Educate and raise awareness of women with disabilities
- Share our concerns for equality and social justice
- Promote research on all issues affecting women with disabilities
- Share our concerns for equality and social justice

If this is your goal or you are just interested in learning more please join us at our AGM Feb. 7 2pm at the Burnaby Red Robin or email pkelln@telus.net

Membership (no charge) is open to all women, though only those who self-identify as having a disability are allowed to vote

Please Note: That the location is wheel chair accessible and we are working at obtaining a deaf interpreter. If you require any other type of accommodation please contact us; pkelln@telus.net or jewellessmith@gmail.com
