

Job Title: Support Worker/Behavioural Interventionist

Job Description: One to one support for 16-year-old hearing impaired youth with ASD attending Neuroscience/Health Psychology Camp at UBC.

Contract Period: July 1 - 28, 2018 OR Position 1: July 1- 14 Position 2: July 15 -28

Location: UBC – Point Grey Campus

Days: Hours: 7:30am to 9pm

Successful applicant will participate in the development of the schedule and must be available and flexible based on the needs of the youth throughout the contract period.

Responsibilities:

- Provide support in classroom and social settings
- Break down and/or phrase tasks as needed
- Give encouragement
- Help stay on task/prompt to begin task
- Support through transitions and schedule changes
- Redirect and/or leave if individual becomes overloaded

Successful applicant will participate in the development of the support/intervention program based on the needs of the youth throughout the contract period.

Qualifications:

- Must have verbal and written English
- Experience with Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Kind, patient and adaptable
- High School Diploma or higher
- In process or completed a program relating to special needs
- Criminal Records Check
- References
- American Sign Language an asset

Rate:

Interested Applicants: For more information and or if interested in position, please reply with note of interest and resume to Natasha - natasha.schartau@gmail.com

