

BURNABY

FESTIVAL OF LEARNING

MAY 6—12, 2018

WWW.FESTIVAL-OF-LEARNING.CA

LEARN. GROW. THRIVE.

You and your guests are cordially invited to the opening and closing events of the Burnaby Festival of Learning.

RSVP to both events now to confirm your spot

On Sunday, May 6, help us open the Burnaby Festival of Learning with PechaKucha Night at the Shadbolt Centre. This will be the first-ever PechaKucha in Burnaby, and is sure to be a jam packed night of creativity and entertainment.

Then finish your week on Saturday, May 12, by enjoying an immersive Salish drumming experience, discovering the magic of science and attending the Festival's appreciation celebration – all at SFU's Burnaby Campus.

Please join us on these adventures into the thrilling world of knowledge.

They won't be the same without you.

More about the festival

The Burnaby Festival of Learning celebrates lifelong learning in unconventional ways, featuring a week-long series of free events that will inform, engage and spark creative conversations among diverse audiences. Enjoy a variety of events, May 6–12, including performances, lectures, discussions, tours, and more, taking place throughout Burnaby. Free events for everyone, every day.

CO-PRESENTED BY

PREMIER MEDIA SPONSOR

Burnabynow

