

Washington Conference
of Seventh-day Adventists®
DEAF MINISTRIES

SPRING DEAF BIG DAY

March 28, 2020

WHITE ROCK SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

14615 16 AVE, SURREY, BC V4A 1R4

- 🌸 9:30 Sabbath School
- 🌸 11:00 Church Service
- 🌸 12:30 Potluck Lunch
- 🌸 2:00 Afternoon Meeting

Come join us for a day of fellowship, worship and blessings with Pastor Jeff Jordan. All are welcome and encouraged to come, you do not need to be a member or even a Christian. Maybe you are curious or just learning about Jesus. We'd like to share His love with you. Part of the afternoon time will be a Question and Answer time with Pastor Jeff. If you are not a Christian, a new Christian or just new to faith and have questions, this is a great time to ask some of those questions.

Questions? Contact in US:
Nohelani (Nohe) Jarnes,
Deaf Ministries Coordinator
253.625.1854 (voice/text)
253.256.3822 (video for deaf)

We are also lucky to have with us, Alan Meis a teacher in Battle Creek, MI who is a CODA and Nohe Jarnes of Olympia, WA, who will be providing Voice Interpretation for the day! 😊

In Canada:
Jessica Carvajal, Deaf Ministries Volunteer
604.328.0517 (voice/text/video chat) OR
Tanya Warner, Deaf Ministries Volunteer
780.864.8457 (voice/text/video chat)

Pastor Jeff Jordan was born deaf and American Sign Language (ASL) is his first language. He is the Pastor of Southern Deaf Fellowship near Southern University in TN. He was born in California, received his B.A. in Deaf Studies with an emphasis in teaching from California State University-Northridge. He received a M.Div. degree from Andrews University Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary in 1996. He is also an ASL instructor and has taught at Southern Adventist University since 2005.